Carolyn,

I just got off the phone with Ed McCarrick, publisher of Time magazine. Ed has been asked by the President of AOL Time Warner Global Solutions - Myer Berlow - to see if he could arrange a meeting for Mr. Berlow with you and the YSP Group. According to Ed, AOL Time Warner possesses a multifaceted infrastructure which could be of assistance to YSP in communicating to the youth market.

Would you be kind enough to accept a call from Ed McCarrick to facilitate such a meeting if, of course, your discussions warrant it. I'll await your reply prior to calling Ed to give him the green light to place a call into you.

Thanks Rich
