SCHEDULE G - AMOUNTS PAID TO ANY VOLUNTARY MEMBERSHIP ORGANIZATION: Schedule G should be completed only by a membership organization. Information must be provided concerning any member if that member contributed more than $500 and more than 20% of the total contributions received by that organization during the calendar year. The dates of contribution(s), and the name, address, and amount are to be disclosed.

SCHEDULE H - DIRECT BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP: Schedule H provides for disclosure of any business association by a public official or public employee with the lobbyist principal. The full name of the public official or public employee and the nature of that business association are to be disclosed. A direct business association does not include ownership in a corporation or partnership unless the interest of each exceeds 5% nor does it include commercial transactions in which the fair market value of the goods or services is paid.

The form is to be dated, signed, and notarized and presented at the office of the State Ethics Commission no later than April 10 and October 10. Any income paid to a lobbyist or expenditure for lobbying not disclosed on the October 10 report shall be disclosed no later than December 31 of that year. Late filings will be subject to late filing penalties.

A person is considered a lobbyist's principal only as it relates to the public office or public body to which he has authorized a lobbyist to engage in lobbying.

PROHIBITIONS (Section 2-17-90)

A lobbyist's principal may provide lodging, transportation, entertainment, food, meals, beverages, or an invitation to a function, if invitees include:

- (1) all members of the General Assembly or either chamber;
- (2) all members of a committee, subcommittee, joint committee, legislative delegation, or county legislative delegation of which the legislator is a member;
- (3) public officials if all members of the agency board or commission are invited;
- (4) public employees if a public official of that employee's agency is invited;
- (5) public employees of a Constitutional officer if all Constitutional officers are invited;
- (6) a Constitutional officer;
- (7) public officials or public employees in matters reasonably and directly related to state and local economic development efforts, if prior written approval is obtained from:
 - (a) the Governor, in the case of public employees or officials of state agencies, except those noted below;
 - (b) statewide constitutional officer, for himself and his employees;
 - (c) President Pro Tempore of the Senate, in the case of any members of the Senate and Senate Employees;
 - (d) Speaker of the House, in the case of members of the House and House employees.

NOTE: As to Cabinet Officers, the statute is currently silent; however, legislation is pending which reads, if "all cabinet officers are invited".

Any lodging, transportation, entertainment, food, meals, or beverages received by the above public officeholder from a lobbyist's principal may not exceed twenty-five dollars in a day and two hundred dollars in a calendar year.

NAME OF PUBLIC OFFICIAL	TYPE OF BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

The value of lodging, transportation, entertainment, food, meals, or beverages received must be disclosed on the officeholder's Statement of Economic Interests. The lobbyist's principal shall disclose all expenses associated with providing the lodging, transportation, entertainment, food, meals, or beverages.

Disclosures required which would compromise the confidentiality of state or local economic development projects shall be reported as confidential. Prior written approval shall be obtained from the appropriate approving authority. Copies of the approval and the confidential disclosure shall be filed with the State Ethics Commission and the lobbyist's principal involved. This information shall be confidential and not available for public disclosure until such time as the approving authority determines that such disclosure is appropriate.

The restrictions provided by this provision are not applicable if the public officeholder accepts the invitation from the lobbyist's principal and pays the fair market or face value for his lodging, transportation, entertainment, food, meals, or beverages.

Lobbyist's principals are prohibited from employing, appointing, or retaining a lobbyist for compensation contingent in any manner upon the passage or defeat or any pending or proposed legislation, covered agency actions, or covered gubernatorial actions.

A lobbyist's principal or anyone acting on behalf of a lobbyist's principal may not employ or retain a public official or public employee, a member of their immediate family, or a firm or organization in which the public officeholder has an economic interest. A retainer is a payment for availability to perform services, rather than for actual services rendered.

A lobbyist's principal or anyone acting on behalf of a lobbyist's principal may not pay an honorarium to a public official or public employee. This does not prohibit the reimbursement of or expenditure for actual expenses for a public official or public employee for speaking engagements.

A lobbyist's principal may not offer, facilitate, or provide a loan to or on behalf of a statewide constitutional officer or member of the General Assembly unless the lobbyist's principal is a financial institution authorized to transact business in this State and makes the loan in the ordinary course or business.

THE FUTURE OF TOBACCO A REPORT BY THE
FEDERAL GOVERNMENT
ON THE TOBACCO INDUSTRY
AND THE EFFECTS OF TOBACCO
SMOKING ON THE HEALTH OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

TOBACCO IS THE MOST PROFITABLE
CROP IN THE UNITED STATES
AND THE MOST ADDICTIVE
SUBSTANCE AVAILABLE. THE TOBACCO INDUSTRY HAS
SPENT BILLIONS OF DOLLARS
ON RESEARCH AND PROMOTION. THE
FEDERAL GOVERNMENT HAS
ON TOBACCO CONTROL.
THE TOBACCO INDUSTRY HAS RESISTED ALL ATTEMPTS TO REDUCE TOBACCO
CONSUMPTION. THE
BEEN UNABLE TO ENFORCE
BEEN A MAJOR OBSTACLE
TO TOBACCO CONTROL.
THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT
MUST TAKE STEADY
ACTION TO ENFORCE
TOBACCO CONTROL IS THE ONLY WAY TO REDUCE TOBACCO
CONSUMPTION AND
PREVENT TOBACCO-
